WHEREAS, Vayne A. Lowry served with distinction as President of Dakota State College; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Lowry has been in the service of South Dakota Higher Education for a period spanning five decades; serving as Coach, Biology Instructor, Dean of Men, and for twenty-nine years as President of Dakota State College; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Lowry maintained the high standards of excellence of Dakota State College as a teacher-training institution, receiving the utmost respect and admiration from the Faculty, Staff, Students and Members of the Madison Community, as well as fellow College Administrators, Regents and Legislators; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Lowry worked long and diligently with Faculty, Staff, Legislators and Regents to re-establish Dakota State College as a four-year degree granting institution in 1945, and gain subsequent accreditation; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Lowry has continued his service and support of Dakota State College since his retirement in 1962 through various efforts, including the writing of a history of the institution; and,

WHEREAS, The Dakota State College Alumni Association, and the Dakota State College Faculty recommended, and the South Dakota Board of Regents granted, that an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters be conferred on Dr. Lowry on this occasion; and,

WHEREAS, This occasion is worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota and it is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of this special day:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, September 30, 1978, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Sixth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight

HARVEY WOLLMAN, GOVERNOR
